For regeneration and vitality

Lomi Lomi Nui approx. 80 min/ approx. 110 min €119.00 / €149.00
 This traditional Hawaiian massage is part of the ancient Kahuna art of healing as practiced by shamanic healers. The oil massage involves the whole body and in addition to relaxation also serves to cleanse body, mind and soul. It takes a relaxed body for energy and vitality to flow.

Vinoble Balance with grape seed oil approx. 60 min €99.00
 The massage with grape seed oil and warm grape seed sachets provides true balance, deep harmonisation and fresh energy.
PURIA tip: Choose your own favourite aroma oil.

Holistic pulsing approx. 50 min €75.00
 Pulsing is an energetic method stimulating body, mind and soul to regain their harmony.
 With gentle movements, your body is put into a rhythmic rocking motion (the frequency is that of the pulse of an unborn child).
 The aim is to let each body cell remember its original state of complete health und well-being.
PURIA tip: A soothing treatment for expectant mothers.

Freeing your mind approx. 50 min €79.00
 Ear candling is a natural healing treatment that originates from the century-old culture of the Hopi Indians and other indigenous cultures. A pleasant feeling of warmth and “relieving” pressure equalisation in the area of the ears and head are induced by the slight vacuum used during the application. A subsequent head and neck massage results in complete and deep relaxation.

Foot reflexology approx. 50 min €75.00
 Blockages are removed, the energy flow is optimised and all the organs and the lymphatic and nervous system benefit from this targeted pressure point massage.

ENERGY SOURCES

The path to your inner being and healing approx. 80 min €119.00
 To restore the balance of body and soul, a biotensor is first used to test the aura and the associated chakra and meridian functions.
 The trained Energetic Therapist then stimulates the body's self-healing powers, restores the balance of the organ functions and releases blockages using healing stones and sounds.

The sound of happiness and being approx. 50 min €75.00
 Take a beneficial time out on our unique sound lounge. Playing the strings causes the lounge to vibrate. All the body's senses respond to these sound vibrations, resulting in soothing, healing deep relaxation. The use of Tibetan sound bowls enhances the experience of “being”.
